Self-Styled Ex-Pugilist Can't Pay Taxi Bill, But Is Sure He'll Be President.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—If Edward Korman, who says he is forty-nine years old, is elected President of the United States, Magistrate Alexander H. Geismar of Brooklyn will get the position of Secretary of State. Korman, who gave his occupation as a retired prizefighter, was before the magistrate in the Coney Island Court yesterday, charged with refusing to pay his taxicab bill, amounting to $16.50. The complainant was Joseph Donitsky, who told the court that Korman engaged his last night, and after riding in his taxicab for seven and a half hours, refused to pay his bill.

In court, Korman denied that he had refused to pay, and informed the magistrate that he had "money to burn." He exhibited a twin diamond ring, and explained that it was a gift to him from the Queen of England. The present was made, he added, when he went to England and fought the champion there for a purse of $22,000.

Called Judge a "Nut." "Were you ever in an insane asylum?" asked Magistrate Geismar. "No your honor. But every one is not perfect. You yourself are insane," replied Korman.

He was asked if he had enough money to pay his bill but he was unable to dig up more than $1 in cash. Donitsky offered to reduce the amount to $10 if Korman would settle.

During the night, which he spent in a cell of the Sheepshead Bay Police station, Korman said he had sent out twenty-five telegrams, notifying friends of his predicament.

"If these telegrams had been delivered, a number of New York's prominent citizens would be crowding this courtroom to pay this bill for me," Korman said.

Spectator Pays Bill. A spectator paid the $10 taxicab bill for Korman, after which the Magistrate dismissed the complaint. Before leaving the courtroom, Korman said that he was going to fight Benny Leonard and donate the proceeds to charity.

"After that I am going to run and be elected President of the United States," Korman quietly informed Judge Geismar.

"Will you make me Secretary of State?" queried the court.

"You bet I will," said Korman.
